WILSON NOW MAKES UNQUALIFIED DEMAND FOR SALUTE OF FLAG

By Samuel M. Williams.

(Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Huerta's latest equivocation over an apology to the flag of the United States has been met with an unqualified demand for a salute of twenty-one guns as originally asked by Rear-Admiral Mayo at Tampico. The American warships will return it, according to international custom.

This word went forward to Mexico City to-day after President Wilson and the Cabinet had discussed Huerta's latest proposal that the salute be a simultaneous one and that he be assured in advance that the American ships will return his gun fire.

President Wilson and his advisers considered Huerta's answer and Secretary Bryan left the Cabinet meeting to send the reply. It was brief and final.

"We intend to have that salute," said Secretary Daniels as he left the White House. Other officials reiterated the intention of the American Government to have no more temporizing but a complete apology for indignities to the flag.

On receiving the despatch Secretary Bryan hastened over to the White House to see President Wilson. A regular Cabinet meeting had been scheduled for this morning and the Huerta demands were laid before the assembled members for consideration.

Secretary Tumulty, speaking for the President and Secretary Bryan, made this announcement:

"Messages have been received from Mexico City this morning. Negotiations for firing the salute are proceeding encouragingly, but are not finished. A question has arisen concerning certain procedure in connection with firing the salute. It does not affect the vital issue, but only technicalities involved in connection with the salute."

Mr. Tumulty declined to go further into details until the President and Cabinet had conferred.

"Have any orders been issued to stop the fleet?" he was asked. "No, none," was the reply.

As the news of Huerta's latest demand spread through the Capital

there were hasty expressions that the United States should not consent to the terms demanded by Huerta.

President Wilson has cancelled his arrangements to leave to-day for White Sulphur Springs to join his family. Accommodations have been reserved for him for Saturday night and return to Washington on Monday morning so that he may get only Sunday in the country. Secretary Bryan has again put off his departure for the South.

Officials here were ready to acknowledge Huerta's salute of twenty-one guns after it had been finished with a return salute such as is prescribed in naval custom and precedent. That would merely be acknowledging an amende honorable, they say. But to return Huerta's salute gun for gun, they pointed out, would make the apology valueless.

Officials described Huerta's latest move as an act to preserve his own dignity before the Mexicans of that part of the country under his control. The opinion was expressed freely in official circles that nothing but a complete apology and such a salute as the United States demands would be accepted now.

While Secretary Bryan, when he took the latest despatches before the President, said the situation was "encouraging, but not finished," and the Secretary said the details remaining in dispute did not affect "the heart of the matter," it developed that Huerta's counter proposition for a simultaneous salute was regarded as another play for time.

All the latest despatches were laid before the Cabinet. Practically all the members of the official family were said to be agreed that there should be no further temporizing.

HUERTA AIMS TO FORCE WAR WITH U. S. TO AID HIS POLICY

MEXICO CITY, April 17.—Gen. Huerta wants a declaration of war. This is his object in the present negotiations over the Tampico incident.

He has been in almost constant conference with his Cabinet and Congress.

It became known to-day that it is now his desire to bring about warfare between Mexico and the United States, on the theory that it will solidify the Mexican people in support of his otherwise doomed government.

ASSASSIN WEAK AND PALE WHEN AUTO PATROL COMES

Rose was taken from the City Hall station to Police Headquarters shortly before 3 o'clock. In the process of searching him in the section room of the station his clothing had been much disarranged and he presented a tottering, dishevelled appearance as he was led from the Hall by Lieut. Michael Collins and Sergt. John O'Connell.

The prisoner was unsteady of foot and his hands trembled violently as he came out. It seemed that the two police officers were bearing most of his weight as they walked.

A patrol wagon had been drawn up to the curb in the esplanade in front of City Hall and the old man was hurried into it.

The great crowd in the park parted unwillingly to let the patrol wagon pass and then closed in behind it in an effort to see Rose. But he was in the fore part of the wagon and completely surrounded by Headquarters men.

So great was the crowd that the mounted police had to be detailed to clear the park.

Assistant District Attorney Embree, after subjecting Rose to a long and searching questioning, said he had not been able to get anything lucid from the prisoner.

"He merely rambles along and it is impossible to get a connected statement from him. We have not been able to learn anything of what prompted him to do the shooting," he said.

HOSPITAL FOOD WASTE GREATEST AT TABLES OF STAFF EMPLOYEES

Bellevue Investigation Shows That Doctors and Nurses Send Much to Kitchen.

The Hospital Investigating Committee, in a report submitted to-day to the Board of Estimate, says there is a wholesale waste of food in the city's hospitals. It is asserted that thousands of dollars' worth are thrown away. About one hundred and twenty thousand pounds of meat supposed to have been delivered to the Metropolitan Hospital cannot be accounted for.

Bellevue Hospital is cited as one of the institutions where the food waste is great. The report says:

"Part of the investigation consisted in comparing the amounts of food issued for the use of officers and employees with the amounts issued for patients and in calculating how much is wasted. The waste food left on plates in four dining rooms at Bellevue in one week last June was weighed. It was found that in the staff dining room the waste was 14 pounds per capita per day, and in the nurses' residence one pound per capita per day. The lowest per capita daily waste at Bellevue was 42 pounds per day for one of the dining rooms. On the other hand, at Kings Park State Hospital the highest waste was found to be 33 pounds per day and the average waste from the dining rooms there was 23 pounds per day."

In one staff dining room in Bellevue, where about 200 persons were fed, the waste of meat alone amounted to 230 pounds in a six-day period; the average daily waste of food returned from the plates in this room amounted to 215 pounds.

"The amount of meat served to the patients in Bellevue is sufficient, but the amount served to the officers and employees is excessive and accompanied by a marked waste."

The report says that because of poor management there is a feast at one time and a practical famine at another. It says more food was used at Bellevue in the last six months of 1912 than in the first six months, although the daily average was 153 patients smaller in the latter period.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork. Even the largest will be able to pass through the slide district on three days' notice to the dredging force.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in uric acid, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.
